HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 3 will meet next Monday evening.

Fort Wayne has three divisions of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Division 3 has the youngest set of officers in its history.

The officers of Division 1 were installed Thursday evening.

Don't forget the Ladies' Auxiliary dance on January 27.

The Ancient Order has made notable progress during the past year.

Division 72 of Boston will organize a Ladies' Auxiliary the last week in this month.

President John Hennessy was absent from the meeting of Division 4 for the first time in five years.

Officers of seventy-five divisions in Suffolk county, Mass., have indorsed the Irish race convention.

Arrangements are being made for an elaborate celebration on St. Patrick's day by the Hibernians at Omaha.

Thoughtful Hibernians, who really value the order and their membership, will attend their division meetings.

The Irish race convention, approved by the National Board officers, will very likely be held in New York City.

The County Board will meet next Friday at Bertrand Hall and County President Connelly urges every delegate to be present.

Division 14 of Yonkers, N. Y., has over $5,000 in its treasury. The Ladies' Auxiliary has also over $5,000 in its treasury.

The Middlesex County Board has named the fifty division Presidents a committee to arrange for the Fourth of July field day.

One of the most enjoyable Hiber-nian affairs ever held in Utica was the union installation of Division 2 and the Ladies' Auxiliary.

St. Rita Auxiliary of Boston gained 195 new members during the three months' campaign just ended, and now numbers well over 400.

Monday night there will be a big initiation at South Omaha, when the division will begin preparations for the celebration of St. Patrick's day.

Division 1 of Newark, N. J., will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary next Wednesday. The order there will report a prosperous year that night.

During the County Board meeting at Charlestown, Mass., Secretary William T. Fleming was presented a purse of $100 in gold in appreciation of his services.

Throughout the Western States joint installations by divisions and auxiliaries have been greatly enjoyed. They also brought out large visiting delegations.

Following the installation of officers on New Year's day at Heppner, Ore., the Hibernians and their friends partook of a bounteous spread and then enjoyed an evening of music and song.

The division of Lakeview, Ore., continues to add new members.
Judge Glynn, of Reno, has been invited to deliver the address on St.
Patrick's day, when there will be an appropriate celebration.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Columbus, Ohio, will celebrate the feast of St. Brigid on February 1. They will attend mass in the morning and in the evening will entertain at the Chamber of Commerce.

OPEN NEW HALL.

The ladies of St. Patrick's parish are making great preparation for their first entertainment in the new school hall, Sixteenth and Market, on the nights of January 17 and 18. Besides a general reunion euchre and lotto will be features, in which a number of gold prizes will be awarded. The ladies invite all their friends and hope to make the occasion a real housewarming.

DIED AT EVANSVILLE.

Samuel W. Boardman, a former resident of Louisville, but for the past several years located in Evansville, died Tuesday after a lingering illness. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Hannah Reilly, and a brother, J. C. Boardman, proprietor of the Boston Cafe. The funeral took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, David J. Reilly, of 1106 Seventh street, yesterday morning at 8:45 and from St. Louis Bertrand's church with a requiem mass at 9 o'clock.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

Miss Minnie O'Connell, a popular young lady of Jeffersonville, has been appointed stenographer in the office of County Recorder Clifford Althaus. Announcement of her appointment was made Monday and was received with expressions of approval throughout the city and county.

QUEEN'S DAUGHTERS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Queen's Daughters on Friday afternoon of last week was well attended and interesting. Net proceeds of the Christmas Shoppe were reported to be $719, and this sum was given to Mother Mary, Superior of the Good Shepherd Convent.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

At Crossmaglen Petty Sessions M. J. McConville, Crossmaglen, was elected Clerk of Petty Sessions.

The strike of the men on the Tralee and Dingle railway has been settled, the men receiving increase.

Patrick Barrett, Glenduff, was unanimously co-opted a member of Newcastle West District Council, in place of John Barrett, deceased.

Rev. J. A. O'Connell has been transferred from Belmullet to Keash, in the diocese of Achonry, to which he originally belonged.

The Birr Urban Council passed a vote of condolence to John Bergin, Chairman of the Birr Board of Guardians, on the death of his wife.

Dr. P. Rowan, Jr., Tyrrelspass, was unanimously elected by the Edenderry Guardians as medical officer of Rhode Dispensary district.

The death of Bartle Galligan, Carrickabawn, the result of an accident while felling a tree near Kilnaleck, has cast a gloom over the district.

Rev. Walter Hegarty was presented with an address by the Catholics of Fanganvale and Lower Cumber, on the occasion of his transfer to Dungiven, County Derry.

The mansion house, the property of the late John M. Tierman, J. P., Ardee, with 150 acres of land attached, has been purchased by John Kangley, Dublin, for $29,500 and fees.

Recently a number of anti-recruiting posters were discovered by the police in Carrickmacross and promptly removed. The posters purported to have been printed at Aldershot.

James McCrossan, a well known cattle dealer, of Strabane, has died at Lifford Infirmary, as a result of injuries sustained by being knocked down by an engine at Stranorlar railway station.

In the Convent of Mercy at Moate Miss Mary Duane (in religion Sister Mary Magdalen Joseph), daughter of William Duane, Portlaurty, was received into the order of the Sisters of Mercy.

James McGee, of Roodstown, has been co-opted a member of the Louth County Council for the Ardee electoral division. This is the second time on which McGee has been unanimously co-opted.

Very Rev. Canon Cummins, D. D., at a meeting of the Rosecommon Associated Estates Committee, said it was nothing less than a national crime to permit grazing ranches in the vicinity of a town.

Rosecommon County Council unanimously elected Brother Mathias Dillon, Presentation Brothers, Boyle, as their representative on the governing body of the University College, Galway.

Dr. O'Reilly has resigned the medical officership of Charlestown Dispensary district. This is the third resignation the Swinford Guardians have received in respect of this office within the last few months.

The death of Rev. Father Crowe, Thurles, in his forty-sixth year, of typhoid fever, contracted two months ago, is deeply regretted in the archdiocese of Cashel. He was born in Cappawhite, and ordained in Paris in 1893.

The death of Rev. Canon Doyle, Taggart, is announced. He was a wise, moderating, kindly and beneficial influence. His charity though silent and unobtrusive evidenced his kindness of heart and consideration for the poor and the afflicted.

Through the good offices of Rev.
M. J. McHugh, Crossmaglen, a settlement has been reached on the Car-radyne estate near Claremorris, by which the tenants are to have for eleven months the grazing of the grass lands of the estate, with the exception of one farm.
